

Possessive Adjectives

Name: _____

Possessive adjectives are used to show ownership. They come before the noun in the sentence and let us know to whom the noun belongs.

Complete the sentences using possessive adjectives from the wordbank.

whose its her our their your my his

This is _____ car.

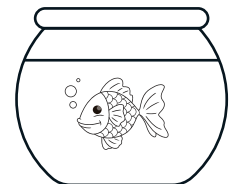

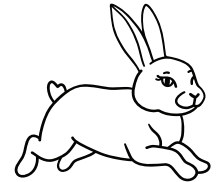

_____ baby is beautiful.

We're going in _____ boat.

_____ hair is red.

_____ shoes are these?

Who's pet is this?

Who's pet is this?

Alexa's pet has black spots and floppy ears.

Sally's pet has long ears and a twitchy nose.

Max's pet has a swishy tail and scales.

Nick's pet has a twitchy tail and stripes.

Select the correct possessive adjective.

It is (whose/his) guitar.

(His/Its) girlfriend is very friendly.

We are eating (our/whose) lunch.

That is (its/her) hat.

I am reading (my/whose) book.

(My/His) name is Olivia.

The dog chewed (its/our) toy.

(Whose/Your) book is on the table.

(Their/its) clothes are drying on the line.

Write sentences starting with these possessive adjectives.

My _____

Your _____

His _____

Her _____

Their _____

Our _____