Prefix Origins "ir-" meaning "not"

The prefix "in-" meaning "not", "opposite of", "without" is changed to "ir-" when added to a base word beginning with "r".

Add the prefix "ir" then write the meaning:

_ _ replaceable _____

_ _ responsible _____

_ _ regular _____

_ _ relevant _____

_ _ retrievable _____

_ _ respective _____

_ _ resistible _____

_ _ rational _____

_ _ redeemable _____

_ _ reversible _____

List examples of objects/situations that could be described by these words:

_ _ resistible _____

_ _ replaceable _____

_ _ regular _____

Unjumble these letters to make words:

grelairur _____

raveretiblier _____

sirisseetlib _____

madeerleebir _____

Guess The Modern English Word:

"irregularité"
-Old French

"rationalis"
-Latin

"respectus"
-Latin

"irresistibilis"
-Latin

"irrationalis"
-Latin

"relevare"
-Latin

"redemer"
-Middle French