

Heart Facts

veins exercise blood valves cardiologist arteries chambers heartbeat

The heart pumps _____ around the body.

The heart consists of four _____.

Blood leaves the heart through _____.

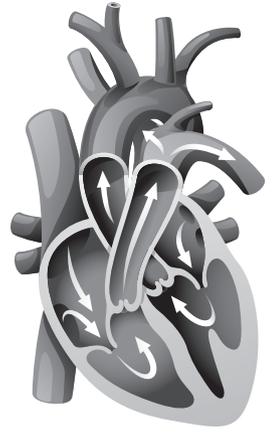

Blood goes towards the heart through _____.

The thumping sound of the _____ is made by the valves closing.

_____ in the heart ensure that blood flows in only one direction.

A doctor who specializes in treatments of the heart is called a _____.

The heart is a muscle. Regular _____ makes the heart stronger.

What is the name of the instrument that this doctor is using?

What is the doctor in this picture doing?

Hearts of all Sizes

Which animal has the largest heart? _____

Why does this animal's heart need to be so big? _____

Name an animal that has a small heart. _____

About how big is an adult human heart? _____

Where is the heart located in a human? _____