

Name: _____

Date: _____

Word Building

l a z y

Superlatives

We add 'er' and 'est' to show degrees of comparison.

For example, who is 'faster', who is the 'fastest'.

(Remember: When a word ends in 'y' change the 'y' to 'i' before adding an ending)

Write the 'lazy' words in alphabetical order:

Use a dictionary to find the meanings of these words:

idle _____
lethargic _____
sluggish _____ drowsy _____

Write the missing word:

I am feeling _____ today.

My dog is the _____ dog in the world!

His employer was appalled by his _____.

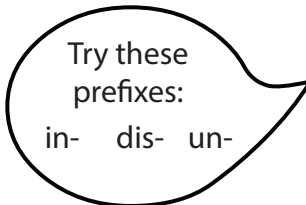

I could not tell who was _____.

The cat stretched _____ in the sun.

A person who is 'lazy' does not want to work or put effort into something. Add prefixes to create some words that could describe a lazy person:

- ___active ___hurried
- ___enthusiastic ___energetic
- ___interested ___concerned
- ___different ___attentive

Unjumble these words:

- yillaz _____
- yazl _____
- zenisals _____
- sitazel _____
- alzre _____