

Snowflakes

Name: _____

Facts About Snowflakes

- Snowflakes are made up of ice crystals.
- Millions and millions of snowflakes can fall in a very short snowstorm
- Every snowflake has its own unique shape which means that all snowflakes are different.
- Every snowflake has six sides.

Research some more interesting facts about snowflakes. Use these questions as a guide.

How fast do snowflakes usually fall?

Are snowflakes always white?

What is the size of the biggest snowflake ever recorded?

On a separate page, draw your own snowflake design.

Arctic and Antarctic Animals

Where do these animals live, the Arctic or the Antarctic?

Weddell Seal

Minke Whale

Caribou

Muskox

Polar Bear

Elephant Seal

Wolverine

Emperor Penguin

Draw a picture of your most-liked Arctic and Antarctic animal.

Writing

Write the following words in alphabetical order.

snowmobile _____

snowflake _____

snowboard _____

snowstorm _____

snowing _____

snowfall _____

snowbank _____

snowball _____

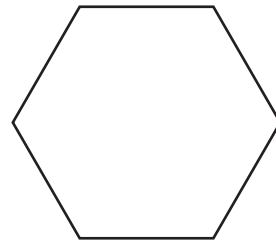

snowfield _____

On a separate page, write each of these words in a sentence.

Shapes

How many sides does a hexagon have? _____

How many corners does a hexagon have? _____

Draw the lines of symmetry on the hexagon.

