Name:	© Studyladder

Subtracting four-digit numbers

	working out
Question 1 At 3:00 PM, there were 6,750 people at the show. One hour later, only 4,228 people remained. How many people left the show between 3:00 PM and 4:00 PM? _____
Question 2 A gardener harvested 6,200 kilograms of tomatoes. After selling 4,120 kilograms at the market, the rest were kept for making sauces. How many kilograms were kept? _____
Question 3 The average weight of an adult male hippopotamus is about 1,800 kilograms, while an adult female weighs around 1,350 kilograms. How much heavier is the male hippopotamus compared to the female? _____
Question 4 A cargo ship transported 9,400 kilograms of goods on its first trip and 4,760 kilograms on its second trip. What is the difference in weight between the two trips? _____
Question 5 In a 7,000 km car rally, the leader is 100 km past the halfway mark. How much farther is there to go before reaching the finish line? _____
Question 6 Mount Everest is 8,848 m tall, while Mount Fuji stands at 3,776 m. What is the difference in height between the two mountains? _____
Question 7 A warehouse started the day with 9,500 boxes. During the day, 3,200 boxes were shipped out, and 2,450 boxes were damaged. How many boxes remained at the end of the day? _____
Question 8 The average distance from the Moon to Earth is about 3,844 km. A spacecraft has already covered 2,135 km on its journey. How much farther does it need to go to reach the Moon? _____
Question 9 A school plans to buy 7,258 new books this year. They have already purchased 2,435 fiction books and 1,980 non-fiction books. How many more books do they need to buy? _____
Question 10 A factory received two shipments of raw materials: 4,200 kg of steel and 3,150 kg of copper. During the week, they used 2,500 kg of steel and 1,800 kg of copper. How many kilograms of materials remain unused? _____	