

The Colour Red

Name: _____

The Colour Red

Red is one of the three primary colours. The other two primary colours are yellow and blue.

How much do you know about the colour red?

Is red a cool colour or a warm colour?

What colour do you get when you mix red and yellow?

What colour do you get when you mix red and blue?

What does a red traffic light mean?

What colour stands out the most when placed next to red? (hint: this colour is opposite red on the colour wheel)

The Colour Red and Associations

Circle the words you associate with 'red'.

heat	coolness	peace
nature	passion	warmth
danger	love	stop
growth	heart	excitement

Red Animals, Fruits and Vegetables

On a separate page, list and draw as many red animals, red fruits and red vegetables as you can.

Examples of red animals are;
- beetles, spiders, fish and frogs

Some red fruits and vegetables are:
- cherries, red grapes and radishes

Writing a Narrative (story)

Can you think of any stories where the colour red is an important part?

Write your own story where the colour red is important.

Plan your story first.

Who are the characters?
Where does the story take place?
What happens? (The sequence of events)
How does the story end?

Column Graphs

1. How many children have red hair?
2. How many children have blonde hair?
3. How many more children have dark brown hair than light brown hair?
4. Seven children have what colour hair?
5. What colour hair do the least number of children have?
6. How many children are in Grade 3?