

Name:

Date:

any way

body
thing
one where

Look, cover, write:

anyway _____
anybody _____
anything _____
anyone _____ anywhere _____

Pronouns:

A word that stands for a noun, such as she, he, we, they, it, him, her, I, you, me, them, us. anyone, anybody, anything.

e.g. Instead of saying:

The old man sat down wearily. The old man was tired from walking. SAY

The old man sat down wearily. He was tired from walking.

Use an appropriate pronoun for each sentence:

"Are _____ listening?" asked Kim.

The young man was exhausted. _____ was tired from running in the race.

The old man wore a blue hat and scarf. _____ think he looked great.

Their teacher led _____ along the path.

You come with _____ and Carol can go with Sam.

The group followed the trail. _____ wanted to see where it led.

Anyway or Anywhere Use either anyway or anywhere to complete the following sentences.

Henry checked thoroughly, but there wasn't _____ there.

Penny couldn't be found _____.

He doesn't have _____ to live.

Betty used to come to our school. Does _____ remember her?