

Name: _____

Date: _____

ie

pie

When 'i' is followed by 'e', it sometimes says 'i'.

Look, cover, write:

pie _____

tie _____

lie _____

die _____

tied _____

untied _____

Write the missing words:

I _____ my shoelaces before I took off my shoes.

Would you like another piece of _____?

Our cat likes to _____ in the sun.

He wears a _____ to work.

Don't _____ to your parents.

I _____ a ribbon in my hair.

Write the above words in alphabetical order:

Add 'ing' to these words, then write in a sentence:

lie _____

tie _____

die _____

Remember:

When adding 'ing' to words ending in 'ie', change the 'i' to 'y'

List more words that rhyme with 'pie':
(They may have different spellings for the 'ie' sound)

Explain the different meanings of these sets of homonyms:

die _____

dye _____

lie _____

lye _____

liar _____

lyre _____